

Journal Club

<Insert topic>

<Insert presenters name>

<Insert date>

Article

- <Insert article citation>
- General information

Topic

- Briefly outline the topic of the article
- Describe why this particular article was selected – what is its relevance to the group or topic area? What was the case or problem that attracted you to this topic?
- Introduction background of article.

Search strategy

- Explain how you found this article - describe the search strategy that enabled you to identify this article (this may involve working alongside library colleagues), or was this study recommended to you by a colleague?

Research methodology

- Discuss the author's methodology, sampling procedures, study design etc.

Findings

- Outline the author's findings / results

Critical appraisal

- Appraise the validity of the study and what implications it may have for current practice

Conclusion

- Summary and conclusion

-
-
- End of 15-20 minutes

Group discussion

- Open up the topic for wider discussion within the group (rest 45 - 60 minutes)
- About title, author, abstract, introduction, method, results, discussion, conclusion, limitations, conflict of interest, ethical issues, overall