

Respectfully, considering the necessity of preparedness for foreign students to write their theses, the vice-chancellor's office intends to hold a special research methodology workshop for master's and doctoral students on the following dates. Please ensure that the necessary information is provided to the relevant students, and their mandatory attendance at the workshop, given its webinar format, is approved.

Master's students: February 27, 2024 at 10:30 AM

Doctoral students: March 03, 2024 at 10:30 AM
